

Golden CORPSE

Shane Klos - better known as Golden Corpse - has been creating momentum for himself within the underground of the emotional bass music scene in the United States. Hailing from Evansville, IN, Shane Klos has been producing electronic music under various monikers since 2009 and is no stranger to dance music. He started to gain his reputation under Golden Corpse which landed him on the label DOOM MUSIC. The "Witches Among Us" Album released in 2019 has been a great addition to the rising genre of "Wave" and "Witch House" featuring tracks such as "Wraith" and "Solstice". You can expect to hear a blend of his styles that he's imprinted through slow and hypnotizing instrumental beats as well as a faster paced influence of West Coast Hip-Hop, Grime and House.

With several releases always on the go, this producer continues to evolve his sound and continues to deliver an original flavour of content within the electronic music community.
